THE ASSESSMENT WE NEED TO DO BEFORE GIVING YOU A LOAN

In providing credit assistance services under the National Credit Act, we are obliged to make a preliminary credit assessment to ensure that any loan or lease we assist you to apply for is not unsuitable for you. To make our assessment, we will need to ask you various questions gather information and make enquiries.

Specifically, the National Credit Act requires us to:

- Make reasonable enquiries about your requirements and objectives;
- Make reasonable enquiries about your financial situation, and
- Take reasonable steps to verify your financial situation.

A loan will be unsuitable for you if, at the time we make our preliminary assessment, we form the view it is likely that at the time the loan is made to you:

- You will not be able to pay or could only pay with substantial hardship;
- You have had certain other small amount credit contracts within a specified period, or
- The loan will not meet your requirements or objectives.

It is important that the information you provide to us is accurate.

You can ask us to give you a written copy of our preliminary credit assessment. This will contain a summary of the inquiries we made and the factual information we relied on in making that assessment.
